

Declaration of safety

Valid for: spare pads

This declaration is not a safety data sheet, it's a general confirmation of safety for the materials used to make the complete product. Safety data sheets are only valid for one single material. The corresponding safety data sheets for the used materials are available from Colop, upon request.

The products manufactured and sold by Colop, can be recycled up to more than 90%, if disassembled competently.

The remaining parts can be disposed with the usual household waste, always considering the local, official regulations.
